Members expressed in our SMART Moves: Emotional Wellness program how their parents not having to pay summer camp fees allowed for them to be able to buy school clothes and back to school supplies. Others shared how parents were able to get caught up on regular bills and even buy medication that they couldn't afford to pay for. As the children shared their stories with one another it increased their sense of belonging amongst the group; they were able to see how much they have in common regardless of their race, gender, grade or school they attended.

HEALTHY AND SAFE KIDS PROGRAM

Program Highlight: A success story around Safe Sleep or Connecting families to resources.

With the generous support of the Children’s Board of Hillsborough County, MORE HEALTH was able to educate approximately 900 preschool children and their parents/caregivers during our 2024-2025 Healthy and Safe Kids Program. With their support, we were able to teach children how they can stay safe and avoid accidental poisonings. Why the urgency to teach preschool children how to avoid accidental poisonings? Poison Control Centers around the country receive calls every 30 seconds from concerned parents and caregivers about a child getting into a poison. MORE HEALTH believes that our poison prevention lessons will help educate children, parents, and caregivers, and in turn, reduce the number of children accidentally ingesting poison.

In our Healthy and Safe Kids Program, Donte the Dinosaur helps children learn that stopping and asking first can help them avoid ingesting something that will make them sick. Through hands-on learning and interactive experiences, they discover that there are things that look alike – such as medicines that can look like candy, or cleaning products that can resemble juice or a fruity drink. Practicing the hand movements and the words “Stop Ask First” helps them remember to ask first before eating or drinking anything.

Every participating family receives valuable health and safety information that is included in the Parent Education Guide. In this guide, they learn how to ensure that their homes are poison proof, as well as other valuable information about proper dental health and nutrition.

MORE HEALTH is thankful that with the Children’s Board of Hillsborough County, we can continue to educate these eager preschool children and their families how to be healthy, safe, and strong.

Success Story: Anonymous testimonial

“I'd like to first say how much of a difference Great We Grow has made in my life and the life of my family in so many areas. We first came to know of your group while looking for diapers for my then two-year-old and subsequently learning of so many other benefits that were provided.

The weekly meetings helped me understand the different stages that children go through which helped me understand the "chaos". It helped me realize how to successfully navigate all sorts of scenarios. You even taught me that it was "ok" to let even the smallest child use an open cup. Who knew?

The weekly visits were something that my little looked forward to and would proudly announce to everyone how it was “her and mommy’s time”. She was more than ready for VPK, even when I wasn't. She excelled at the top of her class and received multiple awards during the year but still looked forward to going back to "her playgroup" once summer break came.

The local resources around the county along with the holiday celebrations were also something that our family of five were able to occasionally participate in. We thank Great We Grow for so many reasons, some mentioned and some not. We are not planning to expand our family anymore, but if we did, we would certainly be back. Thank you all for the time and care that is put into what you do. It warmed my heart to see you embrace my children as your own and see her face light up each time she saw you all.

You all are the best!
From T.”

SAFE BABY PLUS

Impact Story:

Share a family success story from the past year

Our Woman and Infant Resource Specialists (WIRS) work with families at WIC to provide an array of services in pregnancy and the postpartum period. Participants receive Safe Baby education to protect their babies from leading preventable causes of infant death. Unfortunately, these tragedies occur when a baby suffocates in a co-sleeping or bedsharing situation with parents or other caregivers. Other causes of suffocation can occur when a baby is placed in an incorrect position (such as on the baby’s tummy) or in an unsafe sleep environment, such as in a crib or pack ‘N play with pillows, toys and blankets. These dangerous practices are discussed with families prenatally and at their newborn visits to prevent suffocation and to keep their babies safe and healthy.

This dad was so kind to share his personal story with his specialist Adriana Maldonado on how he plans to keep his baby safe during sleep.

“I just wanted to say that I really appreciate how you helped me understand the risk of having my baby sleep with me. Sometimes I can be stubborn, and I love it when he sleeps with me, but you helped me understand that there are too many risks to it and now he’s a happy baby in his crib.”

Fall Activity Highlight

Community gatherings and connections

Each year, Baby Bungalow hosts a Fall Festival offering indoor and outdoor play opportunities for children and families to explore fall themes. This year's event took place on October 24th. Children under the age of 5 and their accompanying adults explored a variety of activities that intrigued their senses and fostered curiosity. With many materials available, children were free to make choices, play with the materials that interested them, and master their developing skills.

Providing open-ended materials allowed children the chance to freely explore, using their own motivation and questions to guide their play. Some filled and dumped corn in the sensory bin, others sorted natural materials into categories of similar objects, and some chose to hammer and scoop carving pumpkins. Leaves could be thrown or counted, and props could be worn while mugging for the camera.

Child-directed experiences are central to Baby Bungalow's programming which uses the philosophy of developmentally appropriate practice. We embrace and model being good observers of children in order to understand their interests and what motivates them. Using this information to create an environment that supports these observations helps set the stage for children to construct knowledge and answer questions that they are exploring. And the participating adults can marvel at the many skills their children already have and continue to develop through play, in a positive, shared experience.

CAREGIVER SUPPORT SERVICES

Fall Activity Highlight:

The importance of this community event is to bring thankfulness during a time when some of our families experience increased grief during the holidays. We want to provide our families with friendship, community, and inspiration. During this event, our families will focus on prioritizing their health and wellbeing. They will be amongst families with a common experience to foster memories and family engagement. This year we will also be able to provide items to help relieve the economic and social challenges our families might be facing.

BayCare Kids Wellness and Safety Center

Success Story: Featuring a community event for Teen Girls

BayCare Kids had the opportunity to participate in The International Day of The Girl Child (IDOTGC) event. This event was the culmination of a wonderful partnership with Metropolitan Ministries and the Tampa Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated, and their International Awareness and Involvement Committee, to build a foundation of the education and empowerment of our Tampa Community Girls. Supporting their central mission to create positive development and achievement for female children and adults.

BayCare Kids Wellness and Safety center provided a Healthy Relationships Presentation to 20 girls, aged 10-18, that were in attendance. The presentation was dynamic and engaging that focused on the building blocks of what creates a healthy relationship among friends, family, and the adults in their lives. We also explored safety within these relationship dynamics and enjoyed discussions, videos, and activities centered on how to identify and seek out safe adults for support and deeper learning. Additional discussion topics included internet safety, hygiene and self-care, how to set boundaries, and tips on how to say “no” to peer pressure and risky behaviors. The group also shared personal stories and insights, while furthermore appreciating great conversations on how to engage and enrich hard conversations and build trust with peers and adults.

Healthy Families Hillsborough

HEALTHY FAMILIES HOME VISITING PROGRAM

Share a family success story from the past year

When Mariam joined the Healthy Families Home Visiting Program, an initiative of the Healthy Start Coalition in 2023, she was navigating one of the most difficult chapters of her life.

With the compassionate support of her Home Visitor, Mariam was linked to a Behavioral Health Navigator who connected mom to mental health services.

Mariam’s determination only grew stronger. With guidance from her Home Visitor, Sara, she began working and enrolled in English classes through The Children’s Board to improve her communication skills. She built friendships and a support network through her church and community events, finding encouragement and belonging.

Today, Mariam is the proud owner of her own home — a dream that once felt out of reach. Her two school-age sons are thriving, both earning honor roll recognition, and her youngest daughter is enjoying her days in Pre-K. Mariam now gives back to her community, offering support and hope to other families who are walking paths similar to the one she once traveled.

Mariam’s story is a testament to the power of resilience, community, and compassionate support. She reminds us that with the right resources and unwavering determination, transformation is not only possible — it’s beautiful. We are honored to celebrate Mariam’s journey and proud to have walked alongside her.
